The rich "texture" or heavy paint body is apparent the moment you open a package of good quality paint. It is this heavy consistency that gives good paint its covering capacity per gallon and which lowers the cost of the job.

Hanna's GREEN SEAL Paint is so rich in pigments its can be greatly thinned with linseed oil thus making each gallon "go farther."

The cost of paint is the price per square yard of covering capacity not its price per gallon.

See that your painter uses GREEN SEAL.

JACOB AND ESAU

GOLDEN TEXT—Genesis 33:1 11.

GOLDEN TEXT—Be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.—Ephes. 4:32.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Two Brothers Who Quarreled.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Esau Forgives Jacob.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Fatherly Love and Forgiveness.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Esau Is Reconciled.

I. Their Birth (25:21-26).

1. Isaac's answer to Isaac's prayer, seed given unto him. Before the children were born God revealed unto Rebekah the fact that the elder should serve the younger. God reversed the world's law concerning the position of the elder son.

II. Esau Sells His Birthright (25:27-34).

1. It was right that Jacob should have the birthright and the blessing. It was according to God's plan. God had been preannounced, but his children to get them is to be commended. He took advantage of a brother's weakness to drive a sharp bargain.

2. Esau the profane (Heb. 12:16).

We think that profanity is only cursing, but swearing is not the most common profanity. To be under the power of appetite is to be a profane man. Esau was a supreme example. He sold his birthright for a bowl of pottage. This birthright was the privilege of being at the head of the patriarchal family, a position of honor and influence, as well as being the heir to a double portion of the family estate. This being a gift of God it should not be despised. In the midst of his distress he thought only of that which would bring him immediate carnal satisfaction. He was willing to relinquish all claims on the future, if only his present desire could be satisfied. A profane person, therefore, is one who for the enjoyment of the present will forfeit all claims upon the future.

III. Jacob Secures the Blessing (27).

1. Isaac requested to get venison for his father (vv. 1-4).

Isaac loved Esau because of his venison (Gen. 25:28). He ought to have loved him because he was his son. A good commentary upon a father's love for his son had such a basis as that of his stomach. Rebekah's scheme (vv. 5-33).

1. Rebekah said to her that the elder should serve the younger. It was His will that Jacob should be at the head of the house and was able to bring His word to pass.

3. Esau's remorseful cry (vv. 34-36).

1. He came to realize that he had truly lost his birthright but the sting, his conscience smote him and he earnestly begged for a blessing, even seeking it with bitter tears.

IV. Jacob Meets Esau (Gen. 33:1-20).

1. As a result of Jacob's cunning deceit he was obliged to flee from home to save his life. In spite of his sins and sin God appeared to Jacob at Bethel.

2. Jacob's prayer for deliverance from wrath (32:9-12).

Esau was about to meet his brother, whom he had wronged some twenty years before.

3. He made his plea on the basis of God's covenant. Jacob came in line with the Abrahamic covenant, so he had a right to plead that relationship. He pleaded that he was in God's will. We should assure ourselves that we are going according to God's will. Then we make our pleas before Him confidently and with assurance.

4. He made a definite plea. He told plainly of his danger. He prayed, "Deliver me from the hand of my brother."

5. He angel wrestles with Jacob (32:24-30).

Jacob knew that it was not Jacob wrestling with the angel, but the angel was wrestling with Jacob. Jacob did not cease blessing because he wrestled with God. It was not blessed until he had completely ended in his helplessness to God.

Jacob gets a new name (32:27-30).

Jacob's experience at the ford of Jabbok brought a mighty change in Jacob. "Jacob" with his cunning and deceit was left behind and "Israel," a prince with God," entered the land.

VI. Esau and Jacob Reconciled (33:1-20).

1. Jacob got right with God before he really got right with Esau. It is easy to get right with our brother when we are getting right with God.

In a Trackless Wilderness

A man who sees no star can never be sure. He wanders calmly in a trackless wilderness.—G. H. Morrison.

Thoughts Leave a Trail

An arrow may fly through the air and leave no trace; but an ill thought leaves a trail like a serpent.

Tomorrow

Tomorrow!—I dare not ask; I know not what is best. God hath already what shall befide.

VERA

Cherries are getting ripe and the little down pour of rain we had Monday evening will bring them to perfection.

Despite the cool weather we have been having, several families in the neighborhood have been enjoying the luxury of green peas, radishes, onions, lettuce and gooseberry pie.

Now, if it will rain enough to give our good farmers a "tobacco season," there will be many grateful hearts in this section.

Quite a number from this neighborhood attended the baccalaureate sermon of the A. A. H. S., also the finals Monday night.

Rev. Tucker preached the baccalaureate sermon of the Vera High School Saturday night the 29th, at New Hope Church, to a cultered audience.

Rev. H. H. Street, of Altavista, will preach the baccalaureate sermon for Liberty Chapel High School, at that place Tuesday night, June 1st. This Chapel School will close Wednesday, June 2nd.

The Appomattox Rural Letter Carrier's Association met in annual session at Vera High School Saturday night, the 29th, at 7:30 o'clock. Regular routine business was enacted; all officers were re-elected as follows: Pres. L. J. Morris, Vice-President, J. S. Coie; Sec'y, J. S. Kinney. A resolution on roads offered by the committee was carried. Speeches by Bro. Carter, of Burkeville, and A. H. Kirkland, of Concord were enjoyed by those present. After which the meeting adjourned with enthusiasm expressed at the interest taken by the members of the association.

Sunday was a big day with the colored people in this section; due to the dedication of their new church "Canaan."—An all day meeting, a "big dinner," with crowds from all sections of the county and Lynchburg to make things interesting.

We are glad to learn that Miss Ida Jones, who has been quite sick, is better.

Dr. Tudor Thornhill, of Bluefield, and Dr. Mosby Payne, of New York, visited their aunt, Miss Ida Jones last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Seaffler, and son, Bruce, and Mrs. C. J. App, all of Lynchburg, visited the family of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Kinney, Sunday.

Mr. Jerome Menefee went to Lynchburg, Sunday, to attend the lecture delivered at the Trenton Theatre, by W. N. Woodworth, of New York; his subject was "Why World Powers are tottering"—A subject that is in the minds of all serious thinking people.

We are glad to report that Miss Juddie Ferguson, daughter of Mr. Blanchard Ferguson, has returned from Blue Ridge Sanitorium, much improved in health.

Miss May Robertson, of Lynchburg, was at home last week to attend the funeral of her brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Vest, of Roanoke, also attended the funeral of their nephew, Dillard Robertson, which was conducted at the home Tuesday evening at 4 o'clock by Rev. Tucker. A large concourse of relatives and friends followed him to his last resting place and a wealth of flowers was placed upon his grave.

We are glad to see Mrs. Dabney Anderson out again after many weeks of sickness.

In Memory

In loving rememberance of my darling son, Percy Harvey, who died June 3, 1925.

Percy, I stood beside your dieing bed as long as I could stay.
It was so hard for me to stand and see you fade away.
Like a lovely flower he faded.
Oh! so young to droop and die,
But the Savior called my darling son,
To his happy home on high.

HIS MOTHER

FOREST VIEW

The good prospects for rain, seem to pass by, and the gardens and crops are so in need of it—and no tobacco is being planted.

We do hope there will be a good shower before the clouds pass away this morning.

Mr. May was badly hurt several days ago, by being kicked in the back by a horse, but is getting along O. K.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Marshall left Sunday morning for Illinois, where Mr. Marshall has accepted a position. We do hate so bad to give up these good people and neighbors.

Mrs. W. L. Shield and two sons, Wilbur, Jr., and Bobbie, who spent the past two months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Martin, left last Friday for Columbus, Ohio, to join her husband and go to New Philadelphia, Ohio, where they expect to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Jones visited in the home of R. W. Martin last Sunday.

On last Saturday night, the home of N. D. Marshall was made very pleasant by his wife, and daughter, in his honor. His brothers and sisters were invited, and in the afternoon they began to come in. Those present were: E. H. Marshall, and family, of Campbell. Mrs. T. H. Ford and family, this county, Mrs. Bernice Pugh, husband and son, Mrs. Gladys Pugh, of Charlotte, Co., and his daughter, Mrs. W. W. Overton, husband and two daughters, of Brookneal. They were entertained by music and conversation, until 10:30 they were marched into the dining room where refreshments were served which consisted of ice creams, cakes and fruits. All had a delightful time and at about 12 p. m the crowd began to leave for their respective homes wishing Mr. Marshall many more happy birthdays. We were sorry Messrs. H. B. and J. B. Marshall could not be present.

Miss Annie Nash is in Lynchburg where she has accepted a position.

Miss Verta Sims is spending this week in the home of her grandfather, R. W. Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Martin visited in the home of A. S. Woolridge last Sunday.

Miss Mary D. Marshall is expecting to attend the Farmville commencement.

Misses Mary and Myrta Overton are visiting at the home of their grand-father, N. D. Marshall.

Keep Off Styles

Washington. — Congressmen have plenty of warning not to interfere with the matter of styles. Opposing a bill for copyrights on dress designs, Ida M. Tarbell and others said women would dress the way they liked and they had a divine right to express their beauty in their own way.

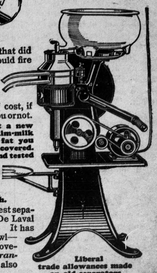
IF YOU had a hired man that did this to your cream you would fire him quick. Yet your cream separator may be doing the same thing and you don't realize it. You can easily tell, without a cent of cost, if your old separator is robbing you or not.

Just ask us to bring out a new De Laval and run your skim-milk through it. Any butter-fat you have been losing will be recovered. Have this cream weighed and tested and you can tell exactly what you have been losing. Hundreds have tried this plan and have found a new De Laval saved from $5 to $10 a month.

The new De Laval is the best separator made in 48 years of De Laval manufacture and leadership. It has the wonderful "floating" bowl—the greatest separator improvement in 25 years. It is guaranteed to skim cleaner. It also runs easier and lasts longer.



Liberal trade allowances made on old separators.
